

Every year, Clockshop commissions a contemporary artist to design a kite that honors the site of LA State Historic Park and its history. This year, artist Misa Chhan meditated on the meaning of this land to the Indigenous first peoples of Los Angeles, native plants that thrive on the site, and how we can shift our relationship to land to one with love and respect. Look out for her “Land is Kin” kite!

About Clockshop

Clockshop works with artists to deepen the connection between communities and public land, in order to build a shared vision of a future based in belonging and care. As an LA-based arts nonprofit, we produce free public programming and commission contemporary artist projects at Los Angeles State Historic Park in Chinatown, and Rio de Los Angeles State Park, The Bowtie in Glassell Park, in collaboration with California State Parks.

This event is made possible by government and foundation support, as well as a generous community of donors.

每年，Clockshop 都會委托一位當代藝術家設計一隻風箏，以紀念洛杉磯州立歷史公園及其歷史。今年，藝術家 Misa Chhan 沉思了這片土地對洛杉磯原住民的意義、在這片土地上茁壯成長的本土植物，以及我們如何能夠以愛和尊重將我們與土地的關係轉變為一體。留意她的 土地親 “Land is Kin” 風箏！
